RIKAS

HOSPITALITY GROUP

Nine years ago, Rikas Group founder, Rizwan Kassim landed in Dubai with the hopes of bringing the Parisian restaurant La Cantine du Faubourg to the UAE.
Today, almost a decade later, he is the driving force behind some of the region's most exceptional culinary projects: from La Cantine du Faubourg, to opening Ninive, Mimi Kakushi, Twiggy by La Cantine, Lana Lusa, Gohan and Madeleine et Marcel, spanning cuisines, continents and styles.

"I had the trust of the landlords. Once they take you seriously as a concept and once you show that you can be a success, it enables you to build partnerships with companies like Dubai Holding, Nakheel, Wasl Properties and H&H. They start offering you venues and giving you exclusive looks."
From the beginnings in the world of nightlife, RIKAS has kept the best a sense of celebration, hospitality & a good dose of audacity.

LA CANTINE DU FAUBOURG

HOSPITALITY GROUP

La Cantine du Faubourg opened its doors more than a decade ago, doing its “little turn on the catwalk” of Paris’ top fashion avenue, at n°105 rue du Faubourg Saint-Honoré. What was previously a site for a bank quickly bloomed into one of the City of Lights’ most coveted addresses for a hip lunch, after-work drinks, dining and entertainment

A hybrid gateway for celebrities and beautiful people from around the world, in search of their private playground and a multi-sensory experience.

NINIVE

RIKAS

HOSPITALITY GROUP

The restaurant is suspended, as though floating, in the heart of a sweltering city district, in the center of the world, yet in the middle of the desert.

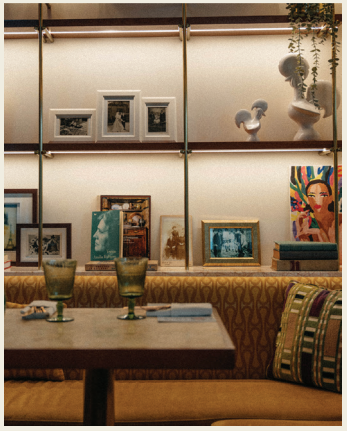

Ninive is designed as a contemporary urban majlis between a garden and a caravanserai. In Islamic culture, the majlis is the space where one meets to make decisions.

GOHAN BY LA CANTINE

RIKAS

HOSPITALITY GROUP

An intimate dining experience neighbouring the original venue at Emirates Towers, accessible only through an unassuming door between the wine fridges in La Cantine.

Small in size but impressive in character, the venue is a celebration of authentic and conventional Japanese dining rooms.

Like the venue itself the name Gohan (御飯) has humble and intimate traits, it translates as “meal of any sort” and is often used to refer to any cooked rice dish. It is personal, traditional and intimate.

The food concept is our take on an “elegant street food”, a selective and deliberately refined menu of skewers, sushi and gyoza working with the highest quality ingredients and introducing high-end foreign products such as fois gras and caviar into the mix.
