NIGERIA DATA PROTECTION COMMISSION

PUBLIC NOTICE ON COMPLIANCE WITH THE NIGERIA DATA PROTECTION ACT, 2023 (NDP ACT)

Pursuant to Section 6(e)-(f) of the NDP Act, 2023

In line with the objectives of the Nigeria Data Protection Act, 2023 to, inter alia:

1. Safeguard the fundamental rights and freedoms, and the interests of data subjects, as guaranteed under the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, 1999; and
2. Strengthen the legal foundations of the national digital economy and guarantee the participation of Nigeria in the regional and global economies through the beneficial and trusted use of personal data Ss 1(a) & (h) of the NDP Act;

The Nigeria Data Protection Commission (hereafter referred to as NDPC) is carrying out sector by sector investigation of non-compliance by organisations.

TAKE NOTICE: that the Commission is investigating the organisations listed in the Schedule to this Notice for non-compliance with the NDP Act. This investigation is pursuant to powers conferred on the Commission under S.5(i), 6(a), 6(c), 46(3) and 47(1) & (2) (a-b) of the NDP Act. Accordingly, each of the organisations listed in the Schedule to this Notice is to provide the following:

1. Evidence of filing NDP Act Compliance Audit Returns for-2024. S. 6(d) of the NDP Act.
2. Evidence of Designation or Appointment of a Data Protection Officer (including name and contact details) - S.32 of NDP Act.
3. Summary of Technical and Organisational measures for data protection within the organisation - S.39 of NDP Act.
4. Evidence of Registration as a Data Controller or Processor of Major Importance - S. 44 of NDP Act.

The above-mentioned information is to be provided within twenty-one (21) days of the issuance of this Notice. Failure to comply with this Compliance Notice may result in the issuance of an Enforcement Order, imposition of administrative fines, and/or criminal prosecution in accordance with the NDP Act, 2023. For further enquiry, contact legal@ndpc.gov.ng or 09160615551.
