

CALABRIA SHAKEN AGAIN.

Two Earthquake Shocks Yesterday—
People Panic-Stricken.

REGGIO DI CALABRIA, Italy, Nov. 18.
—The Province of Reggio di Calabria was visited by two severe earthquake shocks this afternoon. The first came at 2:20 o'clock, and was especially severe at Brancaleone, Ferruzzano, and Bianco, and a number of houses were shattered and damaged.

The people who had summoned up courage to return to their homes after the earthquake of Oct. 27 again became panic stricken and fled a second time to the country.

Some of them are camped to-night in the open air, while others have taken refuge in subterranean grottoes.

Men and women, rich and poor, priests and soldiers are thrown in together, and the devout are raising prayers to the Madonna and the Saints to succor them in their misery.

The gravity of the situation is increased by the inclemency of the weather.

The second shock came at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The people here were thrown into a state of consternation, which was added to by the stories of further damages at Ferruzzano.

The New York Times

Published: November 19, 1907

Copyright © The New York Times