

FAUVERTO COACH WESLEYAN

Middletown Institution to Have Football Eleven.

Special to The New York Times.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Sept. 1.—Dr. Edgar Fauver, director of physical education, and Prof. F. W. Nicolson, Wesleyan's representative on the National Collegiate Athletic Association's board, who have had the matter in charge, have announced that Wesleyan will play football this Fall and will carry out the schedule arranged last Spring.

Captain Deetjen and five other veterans were lost by graduation and Boswell, who was to have captained the team this Fall, has joined the navy. Harmon, a star back, is in the army. The only member of last year's team who will be back is Froldevaux, who played on the line.

Dr. Fauver is planning to do the coaching. There will probably be no training table.
