

Help Bring Healthcare Closer to Home

Rhode Island is planning Mobile Health Clinics — vans staffed by medical professionals that bring care directly to rural communities.

We want your input. If these clinics came to your community:

- What services should they offer?
- Where should they stop?
- What days and times would work best?

Your answers will help make sure decisions about local services make sense for you and your neighbors.

Take a quick 10-minute survey and enter to win a $50 gift card!

Survey is confidential. Open to adults living in participating RI communities
